be at that time be invested, I do give, devise, and bequeath unto James M. Hood, David C, Winebrenner and the Reverend E. R. Aschbach of Frederick, in the County of Frederick and State of Maryland, to be held by them and the survivor or survivors of them and their successors and successors in trust for the following purposes:

From the principal of such property and estate to expend a sum sufficient to purchase a lot of land in said Frederick eligibly situated and to erect thereon a building suitable to be occupied and used as a public library for the inhabitants of said Frederick and to supply the same with books of science, history and general literature, newspapers, periodicals, charts, maps and other works suitable for a public library at the place; and the balance of said estate to keep invested in Bonds of the Covernment of the United States or any other bonds paying interest and secured by property either real or personal of value more than sufficient to pay such bonds, or upon lands secured by mortgages upon said real estate.

The said Library shall at all times be known and called the "C.Burr Artz Library" and shall at all times be kept open for the use of the inhanitants of said Frederic, the books of general literature and all books other than books of reference shall be loaned out for such time in the discretion of said Trustees and their successors, but always without charge, and said Trustees shall make all suitable and proper rules and regulations for the conduct, government and management of said Library which shall not be in conflict with the terms of this gift;-

The property, assets and estate then remaining after the payment therefrom of the repurchase price of the lot, the cost of the erection of said Library building and the aquipment thereof, shall be kept invested as aforesaid as a fund, the interest of which shall be used in the maintenance of said Library the building and the land connected therewith.

The said Trustees and their successors shall be accountable to the authorities of said Frederic for the carrying out of this trust, in accordance with the terms of this my Will, and the proper expenditure of the moneys derived from such estate in the buildings and equipment of said Library and its proper maintenance and conduct at all times, and the board of officers controlling said Frederic and bearing the same relation thereto as common Councils and Boars of Aldermen bear to the larger cities of the Union, shall have the right to nominate and fill all vacancies occuring in the number of said Trustees, which shall at all times be three in number (two of whom shall be members in good standing of the Evangelical Reformed Church, at said Frederic, and one of which shall be a member in good standing of the Protestant Episcopal Church at said Frederic) whether the same occurs by death or resignation, and for an abuse of the trusts herein confided to them the said Trustees, the same authority shall have the right to remove such dlinquent or delinquents from such Trusteeship and to appoint others to fill the vacancy or vacancies caused by such removal in the manner and from the religious sects aforesaid, but not otherwise".

6th. That of the three Trustees named in said Item 5 of said Will, the said James M. Hood, Trustee, died April 3rd, 1894, and Harry C. Keefer, now deceased was duly appointed in his place, and your Petitioner, Jacob Rohrback, was duly appointed Trustee under the terms of said Will in place of said Harry C. Keefer, deceased; - and thut of the three Trustees named in said Item 5 of said Will, the said David C. Winebrenner died October 10th, 1903, and your Petitioner Samuel G. Duvall was duly appointed Trustee under the terms of said Will in place of said David C. Winebrenner, deceased; - all of which will more fully and at large appear by reference to the Certificate or Writing of M. A. McCaffrey, City Register of Frederick City, Maryland, dated February 20th, 1909, and filed herewith as a part hereof and marked "Exhibit M. A. McC".